CANDID CAMPUS

AND THE BEAT GOES ON

The Campus Activities Board sponsored several dances this year. The social occasions were attended and enjoyed by many MSSC students. The dress attire ranged from come-as-you-are (dances located behind the dorms) to semi-formal (the Sweetheart dance and the Christmas dance located in the College Union Ballroom).

Toga, Toga, Toga . . .

Thursday, September 11, saw the Fred G. Hughes Stadium parking lot overtaken by MSSC students clad in sheets. It appeared the price of an education had gotten to some students. It turned out to be only a "Roman Toga Party". The well attended gathering included a visit from the Joplin Police Department. Music for the four-hour long dance was provided by Steve Scott Disco of Joplin. The constant flow of students to their cars and back again, made you wonder if the provided refreshments were unappreciated. On the other hand, you have to consider that there were no provided refreshments. The custodial and security people made several trips to the trash cans. The event is to become a regular semester happening.

POOL SHARKS

The second annual pool tournament was held in the Lion's Den in Billingsly Student Center. Faculty, staff, and students participated in the two-day event. The finalists were selected by process of elimination. Gary Mulkey, of the math department, won the tournament.

Endurance Tested

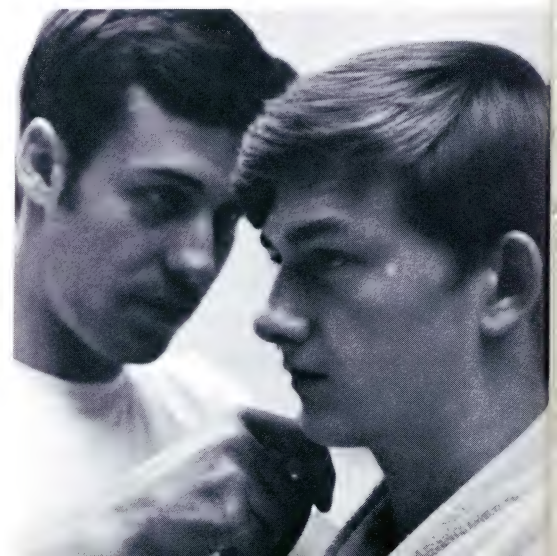

The 1981 dance-a-thon, held in Robert Ellis Young Gymnasium, had an excellent turnout. Dance couples who participated in the event collected pledges as to the number of hours they completed. The event lasted from 9:00 a.m. on Saturday to 9:00 p.m. on Sunday. Couples were provided with food and drink and raised several thousand dollars for Muscular Dystrophy. Much of the success was due to the Kappa Alpha organization.

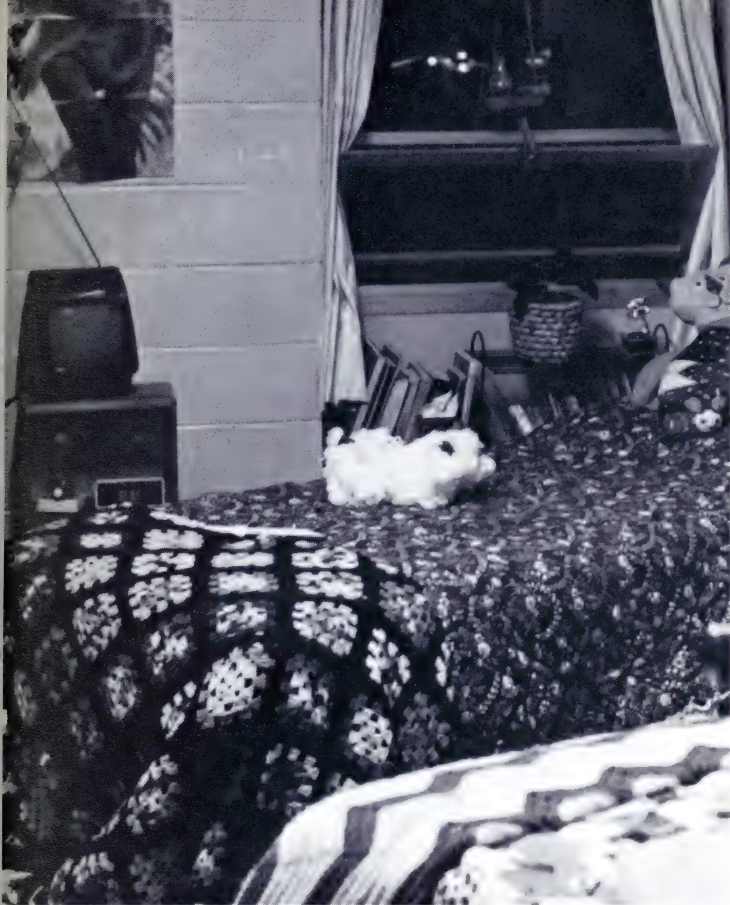

RESIDENCE HALLS EXPAND

Living on campus has always been part of student life here at Southern. It becomes an even bigger operation with the construction of the five new two-story residence halls. The halls are co-ed with the exception of Hall B (all women) and Hall C (all men) and with up to five people housed in the apartment-like units. This year it was only necessary to house four people per unit. The apartments contain a large livingroom (two chairs, sofa, two end-tables, and a coffee-table) a corner partition (a future kitchen) and a bath. Every unit has its own mailing address and the road is Sarcoxie Trail. Each residence hall has a Student Assistant that is available at all times. Hall B contains the recreation and laundry rooms for the new residence students.

Webster and South Halls are the older complexes on campus. It is made up of rooms that house two people each.

As with any place, residence hall living has to be made more comfortable. The taste in decor has a wide range as seen in the accompanying pictures. There are neat and simple rooms, neat and complicated rooms and ones where the floor is hard to locate because the occupant doesn't pick anything up and can't find anything. Dorm living can be tough for those who have never shared before. It takes some time to adjust.

There are many activities that go along with dorm living. People style hair in the halls, finish canoes in rooms, sew, listen to problems, and much more.

"LIONS BY A LANDSLIDE" IS HOMECOMING THEME

The 1980 "Lion's By A Landslide" homecoming was kicked off on Thursday, October 30, with a pep rally sponsored by the Downtown Joplin Merchants Association. The Cheerleaders, Coach Frazier, and the senior football players were featured along with the homecoming royalty candidates. The 17 candidates, sponsored by various organizations on campus, were taken to Beefmasters for lunch, featured on KTVJ's Carol Parker Show, and taken on to the pep rally. Joplin Mayor Jack Belden proclaimed the weekend as Green and Gold Weekend and presented M.S.S.C. with a Green and Gold Proclamation.

On Friday at 2:00 p.m. the campus decorations from different organizations were judged and Industrial Technology was announced as the winner. The student body had selected 6 finalists and a queen by ballot. They were: Ivy Pugh, Debbie Gibson, Rayma Hartley, Stephanie Ruble, Genea Rough, Linda Talkin, and Marilyn Kanast. An all-campus cookout was held near the biology pond. Dwayne Bowman and the International Road Show provided musical entertainment for all. Glenn Edgin, C.A.B. Chairperson, announced that Debbie Gibson was chosen 1980 Homecoming Queen. The night was climaxed with a concert performance by Rick Nelson and Gene Cotton.

Saturday November 1, began with a parade down Main Street at 10:00 a.m. Thirty-five marching units and a host of organizational floats made up the procession. The Kappa Alphas were judged to be the winners of the float competition. At 12:45 p.m., the game ball was parachuted into Hughes Stadium onto the 50 yard line. During half-time, the highlight was the formal coronation of Queen Debbie Gibson by Sr. Class President Campanella Benson. The Sweepstakes Award was presented to Industrial Technology. The entire homecoming festivities ended victoriously with the M.S.S.C. Lions winning over the Wayne State Wildcats 14-13.

Campus Fair to Become Annual Event

An all-campus fair was sponsored by the C.A.B. to give the campus organizations a chance to hand out material information about their set-up. There were 24 organizations represented at the fair. Materials covered such things as meeting times, membership requirements, and club activities. There was an excellent turnout for the fair, from which many students and organizations benefitted. The C.A.B. plans to have such an event every year.

September Brings Rush Week

A fashion show on Wednesday, September 3, began the activities on the Lambda Beta Phi, Zeta Tau-Alpha, and Delta Gamma Sororities During Formal Rush Week. The fashion show was sponsored by The Attic of Northpark Mall. Fashions were modeled by the sorority members. A rotation party, on Thursday, was set up to allow each sorority 20-25 minutes to speak to the future members. Friday and Saturday was devoted to parties that were enjoyed by all participants.

Music Plays a Major Role at Southern

The Missouri Southern State College Community Symphony Orchestra under the direction of William Elliott, assistant professor of music, presented a Fall Concert on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 16. The performance was in Thomas E. Taylor Auditorium on campus. The 45-piece ensemble includes among its members college music faculty and students, public school music educators, and outstanding amateur musicians from the area. The orchestra disbanded Spring semester because not enough of the members returned.

This outstanding record was compiled by a team comprised mostly of freshmen. The team worked while having fun, stated sponsor Dick Finton.

NORTH, SOUTH, EAST OR WEST . . .

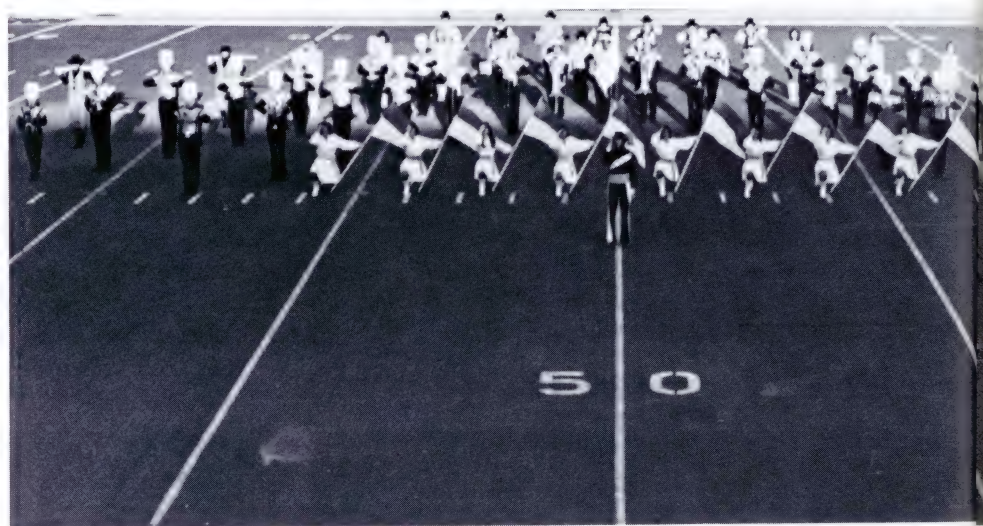

The student body of Missouri Southern is made up of not only state and local residents, but people from every corner of the country and world. Whether it's Columbia or El Salvador or Nigeria, South Africa, Southern attracts students from everywhere. Cultural exchange is a terrific way to learn about others and unite the campus population.

This years Lion Pride Band, under the direction of Mr. Pete Havely, has taken on a new and modern look. The new style is corps style and it moves with the music. Mr. Havely added this look because the audience enjoys all the activity that goes on all at once. The traditional instruments are still there, the band has just added dancers, silks and rifles that will replace the twirlers. The effect is a great success!

CONCERT CHORALE

The Concert Chorale has performed several times this year with a repertoire ranging from classical to contemporary novelty. The Collegiates, a smaller ensemble of select voices, expands their performances with choreographed movement and a variety of contemporary music.

The understanding and preservation of the environment was highlighted during a special Earth Day program here April 22. The college's biology department sponsored the event for about 500 junior high and high school students in the area. The students participated in a full day of activities including lectures, field trips and experiments.

The idea of the exercise was to make the young people aware of our complex environment, and begin to recognize problems they are going to have to live with, and hopefully solve.

The outstanding teams of the Biology League competition for the school year were recognized. The four top science students from each school participated in special activities at George Washington Carver National Monument near Diamond.

The students selected to attend two lectures from a series of four on environmental topics by guest speakers Lorence Larson—Department of Natural Resources, John Woreherde—U.S. Department of Agriculture, Art Boyt—instructor at Crowder College and Cindy Nertfeld of Kansas City. An essay contest and environmental films were shown. The Empire District Electric Company was presented an award by the Environmental Club for their contribution to the protection of the environment.

FREEBIE WEEK GOES COUNTRY

Karate, comedy and country music meant it was time for the annual Freebie Week celebration. The yearly events sponsored by the Campus Activities Board are open free of charge to all MSSC students, faculty and staff.

On Tuesday a "Fun Run" for students, faculty and staff was held in front of the Student Center. The winners of the women's division were Ruth Rice—first, and Cindy Worley—second. The men's division winners were Brad Burton—first, Mike Harp—second and Terry Cole—third.

Wednesday got off to a terrific start with a cookout at the pavilion. All the hamburgers, potato salad, baked beans, sno-cones and cotton candy you could eat were to be had. Dewayne Bowman and the IRS provided country music entertainment for the big crowd.

KARATE, COMEDY AND SONG

Freebie Week activities continued with Larry Daniel, the world's youngest fourth degree black belt presenting an awesome demonstration of Karate and Martial Arts feats.

Tom Chapin, a highly regarded singer, guitarist and composer appeared in the Lion's Den which had been given a coffeehouse atmosphere complete with candle-lit tables. The audience enjoyed the performance with Mr. Chapin who encouraged the crowd to sing along with him to many of his folksongs.

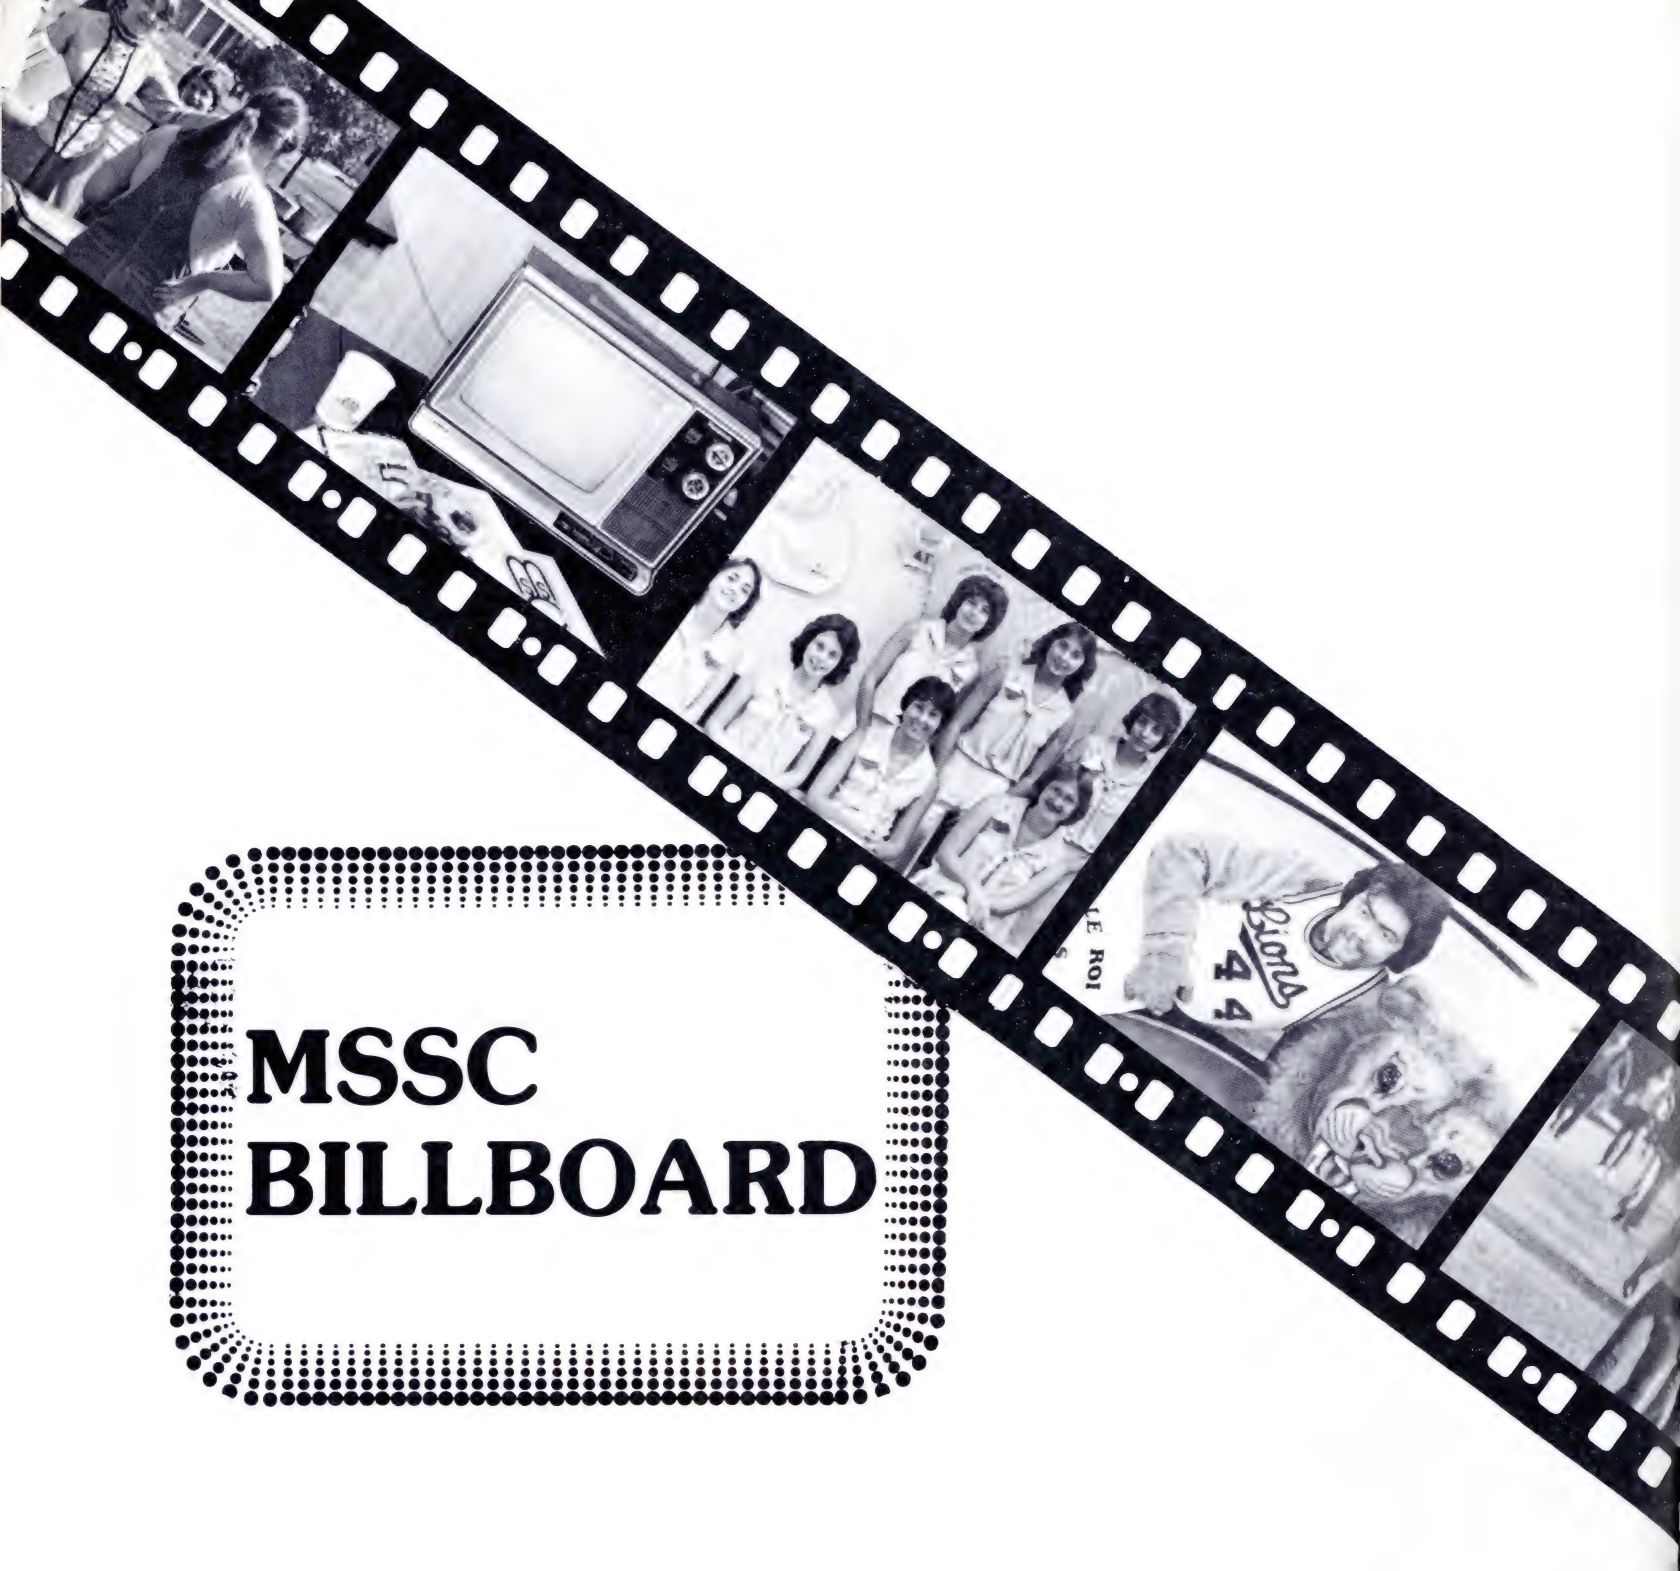

O'BRIEN AND SEVARA

The movie "Honeysuckle Rose" was shown on Thursday evening with a "Country Swing" dance featuring Leavell Brothers and Company, a group from Nevada following.

Friday concluded the week of activities with a performance by Burton and Tappan, a flute and guitar duo from Cambridge, Massachusetts.

SOUTHERN BANDSTAND

WEDNESDAYS IN THE SNACK BAR

Garry Hess, of the Art faculty, demonstrated the lost wax process in creating his original jewelry designs.

A few years ago, on a farm near Burgman, Indiana, a child was born. He was the runt of the litter. At 14 he discovered ink and began to sell people drawings that amused them. Saving money, Steve Gibson reached a balanced bankbook, rented a white tuxedo, and now performs for colleges, malls, and nite-clubs.

In other Wednesday shows, Sandra Elliott showed us the art of glass stain painting. Sylvia Jones presented a basketry and weaving exhibition. Pam Davies presented a weaving demonstration with a variety of looms, yarns, and designs, the old fashioned way of creating fabrics.

The Lions Den . . .

C.J. & Company and Main Designers demonstrated hair cutting, blow drying, and analysis on volunteer students.

Armella Kuehn amazed the audience with her demonstration of chair caning.

Barbara Elliott conducted a tole painting demonstration.

Samuel Lopp presented his beautiful display of color and technique in a stain glass window demonstration. In a skill that requires patience and nerveless hands, Sam proved to be an expert.

The Wednesday Shows were compliments of the Campus Activities Board.

Ooy Weis, wife of campus veterans counselor Andy Weis, demonstrated macrame and rock painting. Ordinary stones were transformed into colorful fish, lady bugs, frogs, or decorated with other designs.

That's Show Biz

The Undergrass Boys played jazz, swing, rock, traditional folk and music from the old west, as well as their own original songs.

Allen Ross and John Imes provided an outdoor concert of folk and jazz numbers for dorm students.

Graciela Tapia's Ballet Folklorico Mexicano, internationally acclaimed dance troupe, gave a dazzling and colorful performance to a packed house.

Jed Clampet provided several hours of guitar and folk music entertainment for those present in the snack bar.

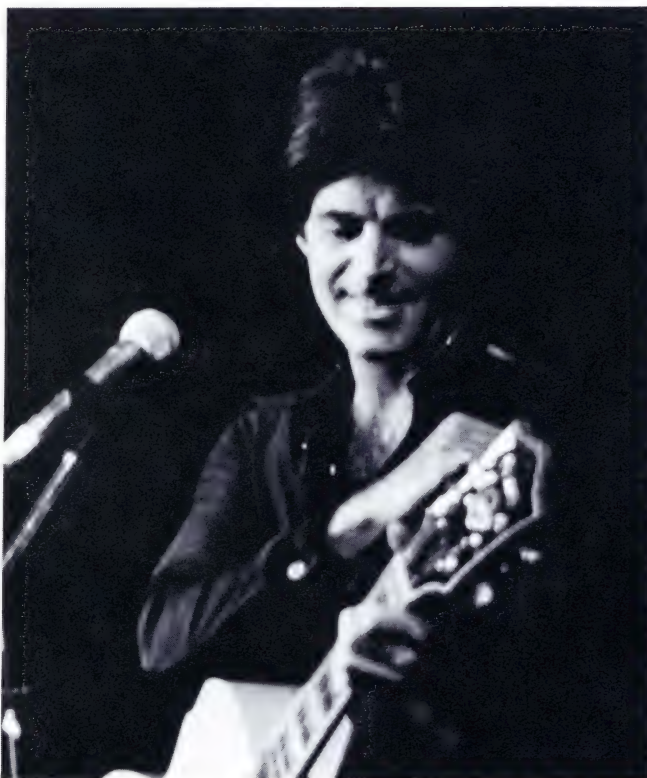

The Mexican Ballet was brought to you by the Special Events Committee.

TALENT IS EXPRESSED IN MANY WAYS

Gene Cotton, who first appeared at Southern in 1978, brought a remembrance of easy listening music to the Homecoming activities. He performed singles from 1978 plus songs from his latest album "No String Attached." Many in the audience thought Cotton stole the show from Rick Nelson, returning for his second concert in five years. Best known for his role on TV's "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet", Nelson had three hit singles in the mid-50's and "Garden Party" in the 60's. He averages over 100 performances a year at colleges, night clubs and fairs.

B. F. Maiz, inspiring lecturer performed original poems of his life in the ghetto, in prison and on love, ethics and morality.

The Saint Louis Brass Quintet, composed of virtuoso brass performers, played before a crowd in the Performing Arts Center. The Quintet was inspired by the rebirth of chamber music for brass and perform before audiences of all ages and for colleges, universities and community groups across the country.

The Tommy Dorsey Orchestra, conducted by Buddy Morrow, brought back the great sounds of big band jazz.

The Kansas City Philharmonic, under the baton of Marc Gottlieb, presented a concert in Taylor Performing Arts Center before an enthusiastic audience.

LECTURES & ENTERTAINERS APPEAL TO MANY INTERESTS

John T. McCarty

J. Peter Grace

The MSSC Foundation funded a Business and Economics lecture series. Community persons, faculty and students attended the evening lectures in Taylor Auditorium. John T. McCarty, vice-president of Coors, stressed that misled public opinion was the main problem confronting America. J. Peter Grace, president of W. R. Grace, commented on several issues including the economy and chemical waste. Dr. Arnold C. Harberger, chairman of the economics department at the University of Chicago, is considered to be one of the most influential people in economics today.

Arnold C. Harberger

Pocket billiards expert Jack White, combines the humor of Don Rickles, the personality of Santa Claus and the skill of Minnesota Fats to keep his audience spell-bound during a demonstration.

Tom DeLuca, hypnotist, captivated his audience as participants found the experience easy to forget, the non-participants are not likely to forget anything.

Kevin King, magician, performed illusions aided by audience participation.

Missouri Attorney General John Ashcroft and former FBI Director Clarence Kelley presented a program on "Crime Prevention and Consumer Protection."

Tarradiddle

Excited and awed children from area schools filed into Taylor Auditorium on October 2nd and 3rd to view the children's play, Tarradiddle 1-2-3. The auditorium lights were dimmed and eight sailors (actors) came running from all directions singing and dancing while introducing the four short plays. The stories, set in Africa, Denmark, India, and Japan were accompanied by music. The enthusiastic performers established good relations with the young audience. Laughter and shouts of advice from the children accompanied all four plays.

Rosencrantz and Guildenstern, by English playwright Tom Stoppard, takes place of course,—in the “wings” of Shakespeare’s HAMLET. We are presented with a worm’s eye view of tragedy as seen from the bewildering standpoint of Rosencrantz and Guildenstern, the two confused minor characters of the original. It is a play of waiting. Everyone waits for something or someone. The only scene of action comes late in act three. The key then is how to pass the time agreeably while waiting. Each does his best.

The classic modern comedy, directed by Duane Hunt, was a revival for the department. Hunt directed the play at the Barn Theatre in 1971. This year’s production was the college’s entry in the Region 5 South competition of the American College Theatre Festival. Tim Wilson received a Distinguished Merit Award for design and execution of the costumes. The set was designed by Barry Martin and lighting was done by Nelda Lux.

Bus Stop, by midwest dramatist William Inge, was presented by the Fine Arts Theatre. The play, invoking the mood and style of the 1950's, takes a look at the age-old story of the search for love and affection in a hostile world. The action occurs in a cafe/bus stop in a small town near Kansas City. The time is early March, 1955. A group of strangers wait out a violent spring blizzard in the small bus station and come away from confrontations with each other and nature a little more mature and wiser. The plot centers around a rough, but likeable cowboy and a beautiful, but slightly tarnished showgirl.

CARTOON IMPRESSIONIST THRILLS AUDIENCE

The voices of Bugs Bunny, Yosemite Sam, Porky Pig, Daffy Duck, Jack Benny's Maxwell, plus hundreds of other beloved characters are all products of the multi-talented Mel Blanc. The most recent addition to his endless repertoire is Twiki on NBC's series Buck Rogers in the 25th Century. Mr. Blanc mesmerized the audience in Taylor Auditorium this year. The crowd was made up of varied age groups and after the performance, Mr. Blanc distributed autographed pictures to a large group of children. He also granted a live television interview at a press conference in Phinney Hall.

Mel Blanc began in radio in 1927 and has had a non-stop career creating sounds of almost every conceivable type including the voices of cartoonlands greatest stars. He has appeared with Jack Benny, Abbott and Costello and Burns and Allen—to name a few. Double Gold recordings include Tweety Bird's famous song "I Tawt I Saw A Putty Tat" and the "Woody Woodpecker Song."

Mr. Blanc is presently head of Blanc Communications Corporation. His voice is estimated to have been heard by over 100 million people throughout the world.

THE MIZMO'S

The Mizmo Comedy Company astounded their audience by juggling balls and flaming torches. The two person vaudeville troupe based in San Francisco, is composed of Fred Anderson and Kit Trueblood. They have built a spectacular show based on comedy and street theatre techniques, incorporating dance, magic and music into their juggling. They have performed in San Francisco, the MGM Grand in Reno, Sahara Club in Las Vegas, Caesar's Palace in Lake Tahoe, and at numerous colleges and universities in California and the Midwest. The audience participated in various parts of the show and were impressed by the duo's feats.

The Southern Soccer Team completed its seventh consecutive winning season with a 15-4-1 record. The final ranking in the NAIA saw M.S.S.C. in 16th place. In NAIA Team Scoring Defense, the Lions occupied 10th place in the final rankings. A number of players were recognized in post-season selections for their fine efforts. All-District selections were: George Major, Rob Lonigro, Tim Behnen of the First Team, and Todd Johnston and Mark Ruzicka of the Second Team. Joe Macken received Honorable Mention. The three players selected for All-District also made the All-Mid-West Team Honorable Mention List. For the second straight year George Major, the Lion goalie, was chosen for the All-American Team. Major also received a very special honor as he was selected to play for the West in the East-West Senior Bowl game on December 13, 1980 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. The West Team defeated the East Team 5-4. Coach Bodon stated that much of the success of the 1980 season was attributed to very dedicated seniors who provided much of the leadership.

Winning Tradition Continues— Lady Lions Fourth in Conference

The Missouri Southern Lady Lions have never had a losing season in volleyball and continued with that tradition this year. The winning record included a 20-18 match record, a 7-7 CSIC record (a tie for fourth), a 1-2 State Tournament record, and a 63-60 game record.

Three people were named to All-Conference Teams: Senior Mary Carter, of the first team, Joanna Swearengin (a freshman) of the second team who led the Lady Lion statistics with 742 points (an average of 8.2 points per game). Joanna also had 207 serving points (for a 2.3 average), 404 assists, and 12 ace serves. Senior Patti Killian earned an honorable mention. Coach CeCe Chamberlin felt this team was one of the best groups she had ever worked with, more than the record showed. Unfortunately they didn't play well under pressure, but had great determination and never quit. Coach Chamberlin was very proud of them.

An attractive 30-game schedule faced the MSSC women for the 1980-81 basketball season. This year's roster included three seniors, five juniors, one sophomore and six freshmen.

Early in the year the Lady Lions took fourth place in the Gateway Invitational Tournament hosted by the University of Missouri-St. Louis. The Southern women defeated Arkansas State first round, then lost to William Penn in the semifinals.

Southern's Lady Lions did not participate in the MAIAW Division II Tournament this year, making this the first time since 1975 that Southern had not qualified for the post-season event.

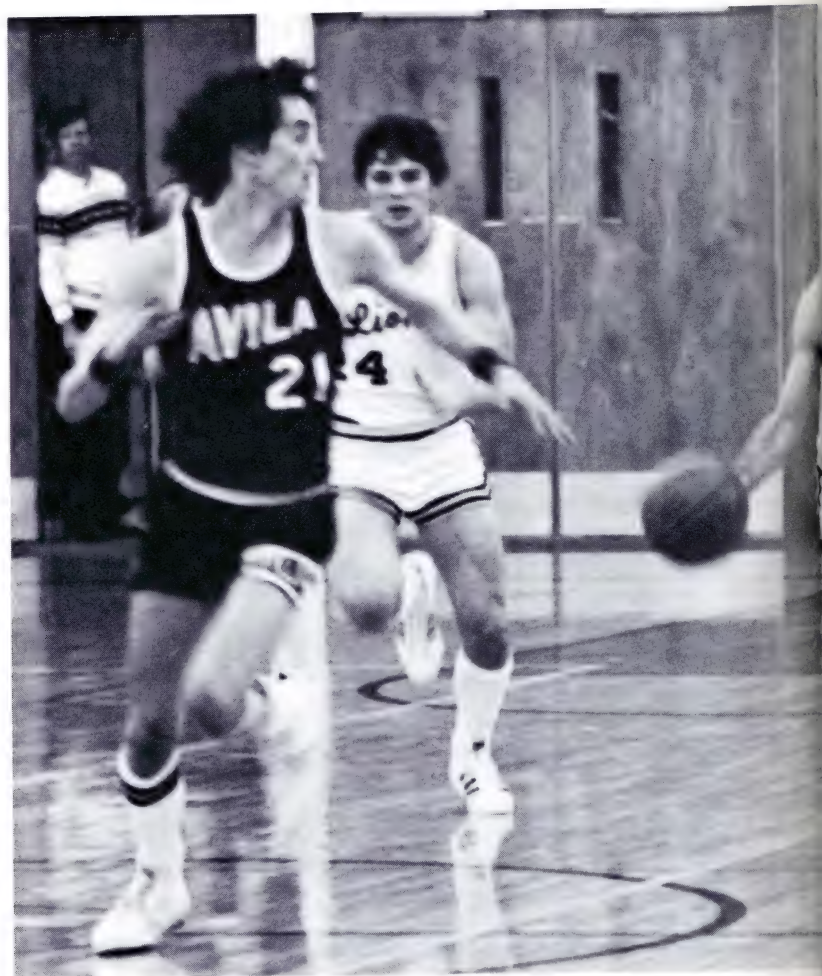

This is the final season at Southern for women's basketball coach G.I. Willoughby, who plans to move on to another school where she can concentrate on coaching only one sport or assume the directorship of women's athletics.

The basketball Lion's of Coach Chuck Williams completed another highly successful year. The Green and Gold cagers captured the Lionbacker Holiday Tournament, as well as The Central States Intercollegiate Conference (CSIC) championship. Along the way, the Lions defeated the nation's first, second, sixth and seventh ranked NAIA teams, and were ranked themselves as high as tenth in the nation by Basketball Weekly.

Percy Brown, a 6-4 all-CSIC performer, led the balanced Lion attack with a 12.2 average. He was also selected to the all district first team. Super-sub Ricky Caver was next in scoring with 10.9, followed by Kenn Stoechner, with 10 points per game. Playmaker Randy Goughnour chipped in with 8 points per game and Skip Taylor added 7.8. Jerry Wilson led the team in rebounding. The Lion's bench proved to be the difference in several games. Coach Williams was also selected CSIC Coach of the Year.

BASEBALL 1981

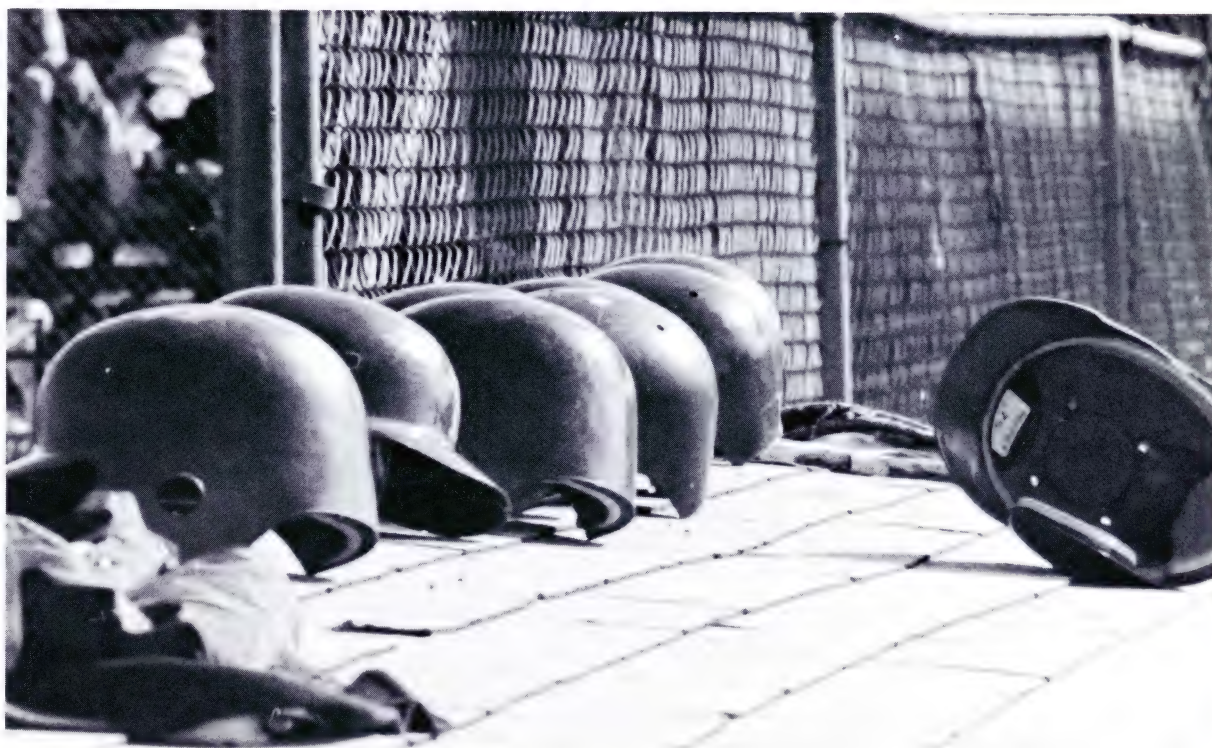

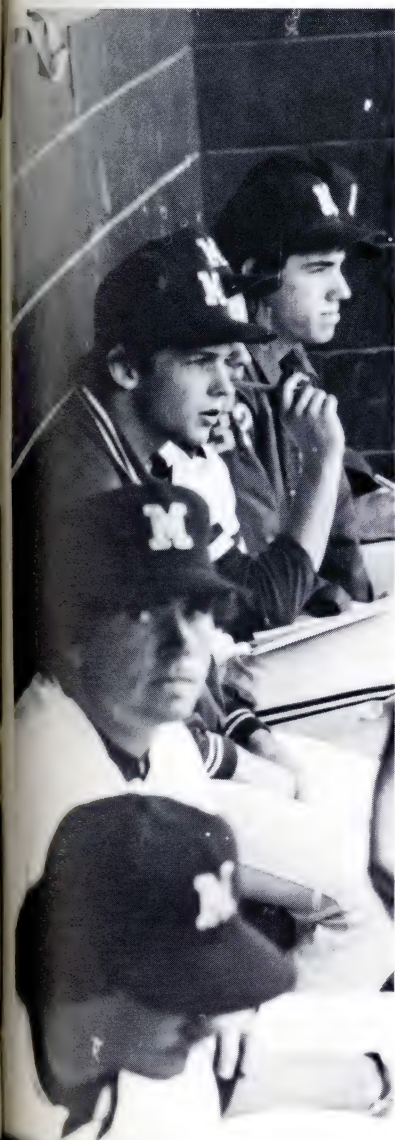

Three MSSC baseball players were named to the All-Central States Intercollegiate Conference team. Those selected were designated hitter Randy Braun, outfielder Ken Sherrell, and pitcher Gary Bradshaw. Braun was the top hitter in the conference at the time of the balloting with a .512 average. Bradshaw led all pitchers with a 9-0 record and also sported a 2.29 earned run average. Four Missouri Southern players received honorable mention—first baseman Dave Scott, second baseman Wayne Wilmes, catcher Bubba Carlton, and pitcher Terry Swartz. The team compiled a district record of 19-3.

A highlight of the 1981 Spring Women's Tennis season was the number three doubles team of Kathy Bay and Jana Renegar compiling a 19-2 record going into the regional. The goal of the duo was to take the AIAW Region VI Championship and gain a berth in the national Division II Tournament. Bay, a Carthage junior, and Renegar, a Miami junior transfer from Oklahoma University, won the number three doubles championship of the Missouri Southern Tournament, the same championship at the Missouri Western Tournament, finished first at number three doubles in the CSIC Tournament, and took second at number three doubles in the MAIAW Tourney.

Southern's Lady Lions finished at 8-5 in dual matches for the season, qualified for the AIAW Regional by taking second in the MAIAW Tourney, and took third in the CSIC tourney, fourth in the ten-team Missouri Western Tourney and first in their own four team tournament.

Freshman Ginger Garrison won the number one singles championship at the MAIAW tourney, and compiled a 16-7 record going into the regional. Sandy Smith-Vaughn was 10-14 at number two singles, Kelly Bowman 12-11 at number three, Kathy Landgraf 9-9 at number four, Kathy Bay 15-7 at number five, and Jana Renegar 12-7 at number six.

Coach Ce Ce Chamberlin wound up a three year career at Missouri Southern with a 33-6 record in varsity tennis. She left the college to marry and move to Australia.

Southern's diamond squad finished the 1981 season with a 19-20 record, despite leading the opposition in hitting and other categories by a wide margin.

"We did quite well this season . . ." commented Coach Willoughby on this, her final season at Southern. Ms. Willoughby is moving on to another school where she can concentrate on coaching one sport or assume the directorship of the women's athletic department there.

RIFLE TEAM HOLDS OLYMPIC HOPEFULS

Missouri Southern's Rifle Team is a small but elite group coached by SFC Jack Cantrell. The four member team made an excellent showing this year winning the state championship in the air rifle event and placing third in the small bore event. This was the third consecutive year that Southern's Rifle Team had placed in the top three in State Championship.

Two special members of the team are Butch and Mike English. The brothers are both expert shots and have been interested in shooting for many years. Butch, a junior at Southern, has participated in and won many championships through the years.

Through dedication and hard work, he has won a berth on the National Development Team of the United States, giving him the right to use the facilities at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs. He will live and train at the center in preparation for the 1984 Olympic Games.

Mike, a sophomore majoring in Marketing and Management, participated in the International Shooting Match in Mexico City, placing fourth in the Junior Division. He is currently ranked as one of the top two Juniors in the world. He has been named to Who's Who Among American High School Students for two years and International Youth and Achievement. Mike has also been named to the National Development Team and been invited to live and train in Colorado. We wish both of them a lot of luck.

CHEERLEADERS WIN AWARD

The cheerleaders attended a five-day camp in Memphis, Tennessee during the month of August. The day began at 7:00 am and continued thru 8:00 pm. Activities included drills, cheers, classroom lectures, and competition events. Camp spirit awards were given to 26 out of 92 schools. The MSSC squad, for the first time, won four days out of five to keep the camp spirit award. The over-all achievements included one outstanding rating, three excellent ratings, and two superior awards.

1981 COMMENCEMENT

Missouri Southern State College

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL
COMMENCEMENT

May 15, 1981

7:00 p.m.

FRED G. HUGHES STADIUM

Missouri Southern State College commencement took place on May 15, 1981 at 7:00 p.m. in Fred G. Hughes Stadium. The invocation was given by Wayne R. Porter, Pastor, First Presbyterian Church in Webb City, MO. Next Dr. Darnton, president of the college, welcomed everyone to the thirteenth annual event. The address was made by Milton F. Droege, Jr. of Tulsa, OK. Dr. Floyd E. Belk, Vice President for Academic Affairs, made the class presentation, presented the Diplomas, and announced the Academic Honors. Dr. Darnton also presented the Outstanding Teacher Award. Russell Barnekow, Jr. of SMSU presented the Masters Degrees to three students. Altogether 505 degrees were given. The Benediction was made by Wayne Porter to conclude this years events. Congratulations and best of luck to all the 1981 grads!

Outstanding Teachers Reflect Concern, Respect

The Missouri Southern Foundation annually presents two teaching awards with each recipient receiving a $1000 check and special plaque. Nominations are made by faculty, students and alumni. The emeritus faculty make the final selection.

Mrs. Marilyn Jacobs, instructor in nursing, was named "Outstanding Teacher of a Freshman Class." She teaches freshman courses in fundamentals of nursing, maternal-child nursing and psychiatric nursing.

Mrs. Jacobs' students nominated her with enthusiastic comments such as:

"Instills interest in her lectures and initiates a willingness to learn."

"Serves as an exceptional role model for nursing students."

"She demonstrates compassion for others, strong personal and professional values."

"Always has time for her students."

"Her teaching methods are always kindness and information, never ridicule or shame."

"A caring individual."

"Her pride in her profession is inspiring."

"She expects you to come well prepared and informed for the task ahead."

Dr. Vonnie Prentice, associate professor of biology, received this year's "Outstanding Teacher" award. Dr. Prentice works closely with and teaches courses in the pre-professional curriculum, advising students who plan careers in medicine, dentistry and veterinary medicine.

His students praised his professional and personal qualities with these comments:

"Shows considerable respect for his students."

"Always available to answer questions."

"He has a genuine concern for his students."

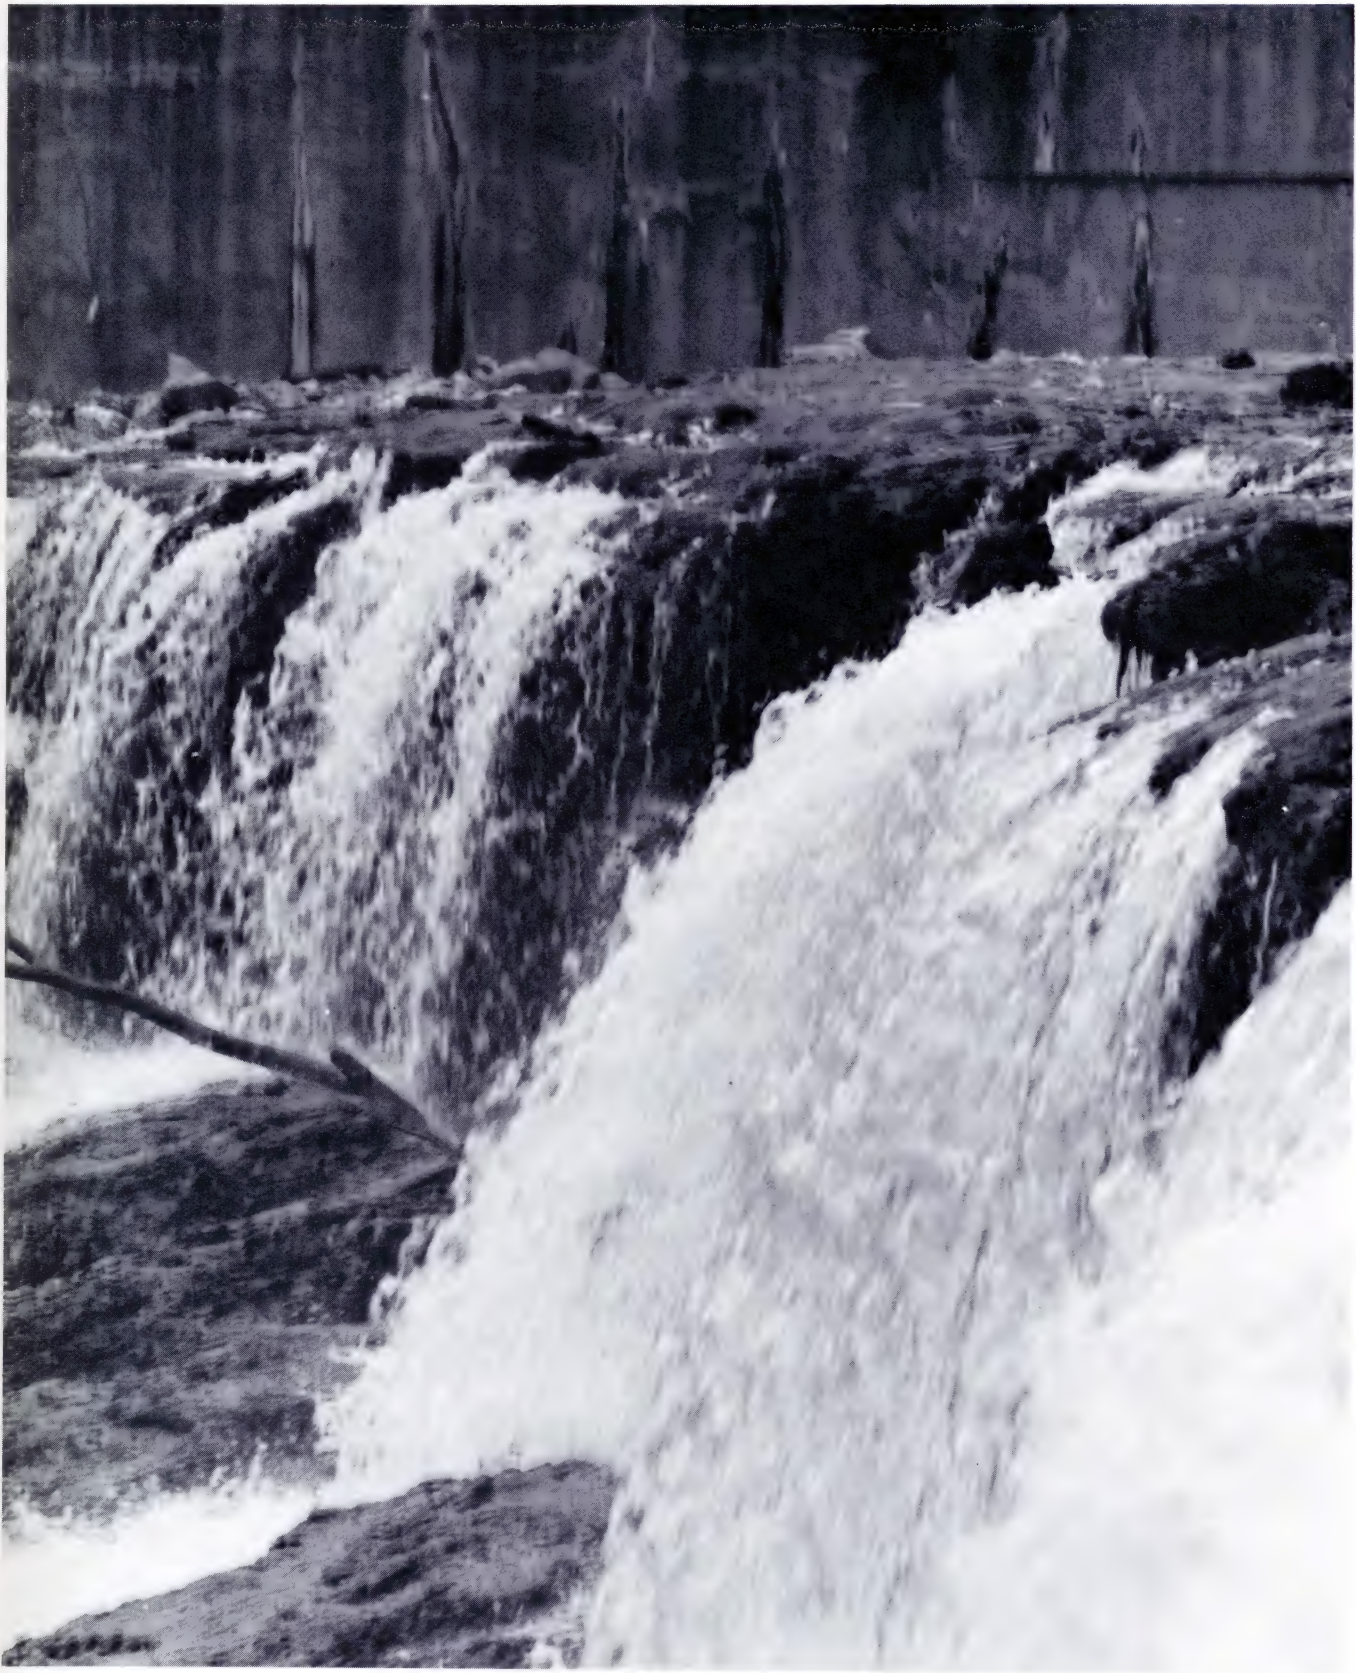

"His lectures are organized for maximum understanding."

"You must understand the material, not just memorize it."

"Shows a considerable knowledge of a wide variety of subjects."

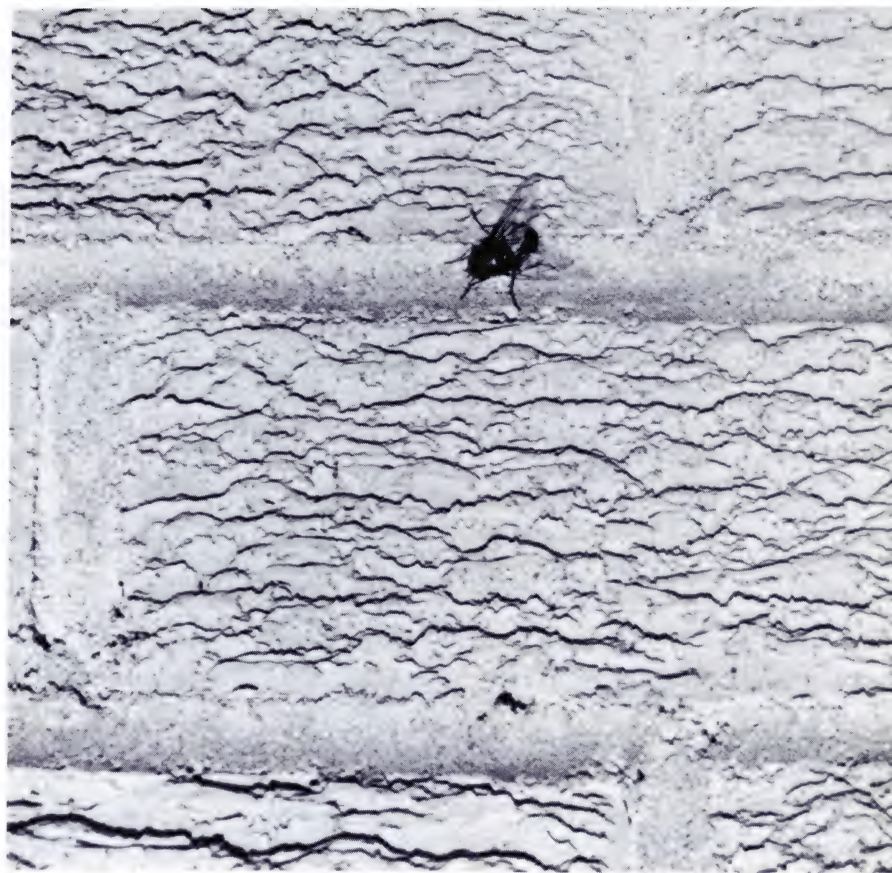

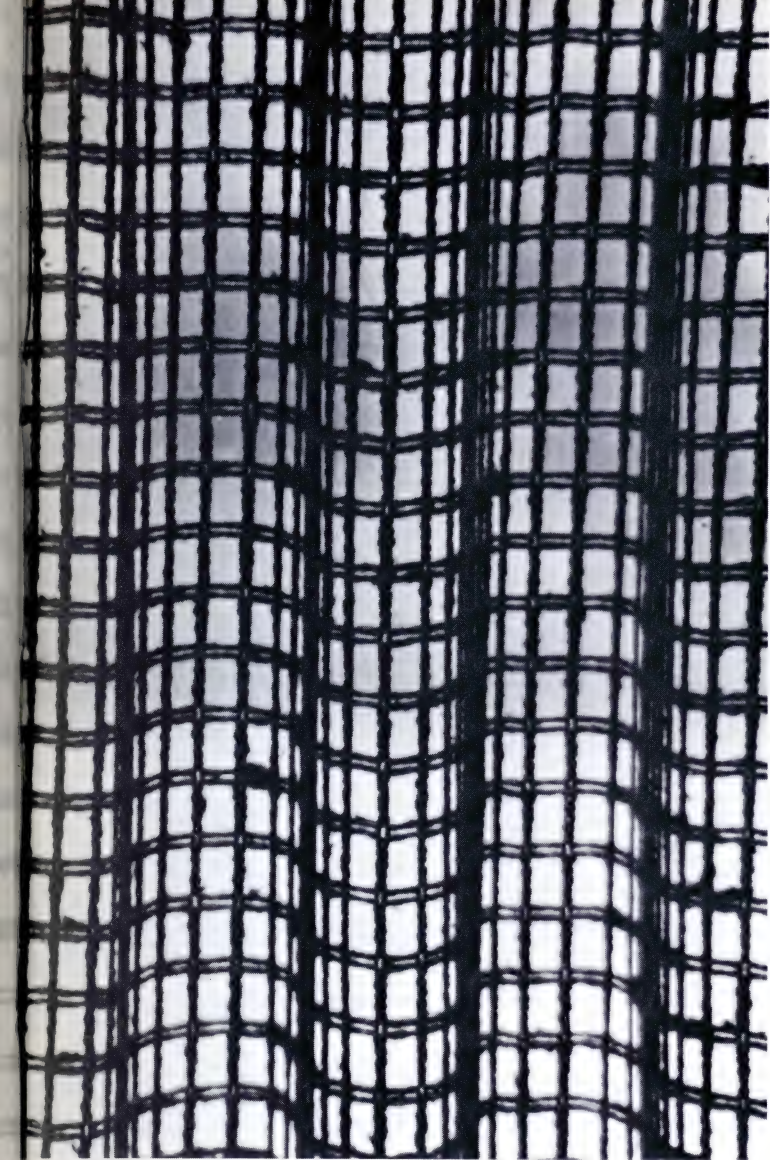

"After completion of any of his courses, a student feels a sense of accomplishment."

"Students are inspired because of his genuine concern and respect for the student and his purpose."

Shaping Our Future

Hey Twin

In order to get their names, right, people call them by their last name or just say, "Hey Twin", but Brent and Brian Morris don't have problems with individuality. Brent is a psychology major who likes sports and enjoys reading historical biographies. Brian is majoring in business administration, also likes sports, and reads science fiction.

Being a twin has its advantages. If one didn't want to do something the other took his place. There are disadvantages also. In high school typing class they switched places for one day. The teacher returned papers previously handed in and one of them was shocked when he saw all the red marks. He immediately felt better when he remembered the paper belonged to his brother.

Past, Present, Future

The military has been a part of Jim Williams life for the past six years and will continue to be so in the future. Jim will be commissioned into the Finance Corp as a 2nd Lt. on July 24. He enlisted in the Army in 1975 for four years and was assigned to the Old Guard in Washington D. C. He left in April 1979 and started attending M.S.S.C. Jim joined the ROTC program on campus and became the 1980-81 Outstanding Senior in Military Science.

Jim's busy schedule leaves little time for his favorite hobbies-photography and rapelling. He is involved in the Drill Team of the Pershing Rifles and is majoring in General Business. His marriage last November was "Quite a birthday present."

Someone's Always There

The greatest advantage of having a twin, according to fraternal twins Kathy and Kelly Ness "is always having someone there." Kathy and Kelly have a lot of fun together and know they will always have a friend to talk to.

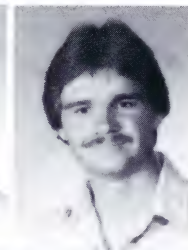

Kathy is a Psychology-Special Ed. major who wants to work with emotionally disturbed children. She enjoys biking, reading, theatre, music and is a member of Lambda-Beta-Phi.

Kelly is a Sociology major and would like to go into Social Work. She likes photography, painting, the outdoors, and is a member of Lambda-Beta-Phi also.

Understanding Culture

"Studying a foreign language is important to understand another culture," says senior Judy Rice when asked why she chose Spanish as her major. When Judy, a graduate of Jasper High School, leaves Southern she will have a degree in both Spanish and History. In explaining her decision to combine these two fields of study, Judy says "whenever you study in the social sciences I think you'll find that you're really just putting together the pieces of a big puzzle." Judy is a member of the Modern Language Club and a member of CIRUNA.

Special Forces

Sgt. 1st Class Jack Cantrell, Military Science Instructor, was drafted into the United States Army in 1968. He volunteered for and was assigned to the Special Forces (Green Berets). He was assigned to a specialty team within the Special Forces as a High Altitude Low Overhead Parachuter. Cantrell is a weapon specialist, master rappeller, and cross-trained as a medic, and in communications.

Cantrell has made over 200 jumps with 26,000 feet being the highest. He runs an average of 35 miles a week, works out at the gym and likes to hunt. Hang gliding and scuba diving are two sports he would like to try. He would like to spend his final seven years in the army connected with the Green Berets.

Non-Traditional

The 1980-81 Outstanding Senior for General Business is a non-traditional student. Janice Franklin waited fifteen years before attending college. In that time she was married, raised two sons and participated in ceramics, painting, tennis, and skating. Since going to school Janice has had to devote her time to studying and to her family.

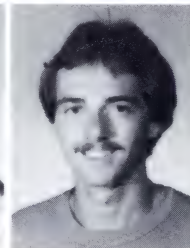

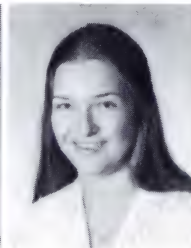

Janice plans to attend law school as UMKC. She will live on campus while her family stays in Mt. Vernon. Her family, friends, and teachers are all encouraging and supporting her. It has taken Janice only three years to finish her degree in general business, while participating in SAM, ODE, and the paralegal club.

Business World

Randy Goughner, Mediapolis, Iowa, is the 1981 Outstanding Senior in Marketing and Management. His interest is in the business world and how it operates. Randy and his father are working on a franchise of retail candy stores and plan to open another franchise this summer of which they will be the managers. His future plans are to work in a chain store retail outlet.

Randy had a chance to play pro baseball but turned it down, without regrets, to play basketball here. He has played on the MSSC Basketball Team for the past two years. Basketball takes a lot of time—first of school until the end of March—so Randy has little time for outside activities. When he has the chance he likes to waterski and participate in tennis and baseball.

Piano Is Important

Anne Waggoner, the 1980-81 Outstanding Senior in Music, is from Diamond, MO. Music has been a part of Anne's life since she was eight years old when she began piano lessons which continued through high-school. Her high school music teacher encouraged her to enter the District Contest at MSSC which added to her excitement about music. Anne wants to teach elementary education music because she loves to work with children.

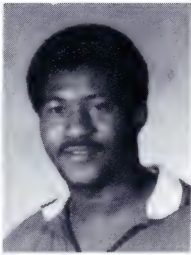

Anne also plays the flute but prefers the piano. She gives piano lessons to fourteen students. She likes to play classical and contemporary gospel and her favorite composer is Brahms. Anne wants to continue her work with children's church and the youth choir.

Switchboard Operator

"I like everything about my job because I enjoy people," states Sue Ann McReynolds. Sue Ann is MSSC's operator. She has a wide variety of duties that require a lot of time. Sue Ann is busy most of the time answering calls (sometimes they aren't even for the college), answering questions to do with students or the school, knowing where people are at all times, and knowing all the personnel on campus. She also has to know each faculty and staff's job so she can connect the questions from calls to people who can answer them.

Sue Ann has been here for nine years and the campus has grown very rapidly. She has to break down the bill each month. When she started the average bill was 30 pages long; today it averages about 149 pages.

Always Busy

Kreta Gladden, a Financial Aids Counselor, is a very busy lady. Basically, she helps the Financial Aids Director in implementing programs such as Work-Study and Student-Help. Kreta is also a liaison between colleges, high schools, parents, students, faculty, and civic groups desiring information on the programs here at Southern. She counsels a lot of incoming students, also. Kreta's hobbies include her family, jogging, bike riding, and reading. She enjoys "happily ever after" books, especially if they are about history. Her main responsibility for the year is seeing to the Scholarship Program Banquet.

Graduating Together

Joan and Melodie Shaw are mother-daughter graduates of Southern this year. Joan's major is in Psychology with a minor in Art and teaching. She is doing a practicum at Freeman Hospital for Family Services and plans to get her MA in Family Counseling. Art is a hobby when time permits, and farming fills in the remaining hours. She is a member of Psy Chi.

Melodie recently married and her hobby is taking care of her new husband. She plans to get a MA in Computer Science and work with her husband in his business.

Both feel this experience was "absolutely great" because they could study together on their 45 mile drive from Bronough, MO. More importantly, there is no competitiveness because they are best friends as well as mother and daughter.

Staying Busy

Staying busy is the main theme of Kathy Lay's life. Kathy is originally from Denver, Colorado where her favorite sport was tobogganing. She moved to Missouri and as a student at MSSC was Vice-president of the Junior class and a member of the student senate. She graduated from Southern and now holds the new position entitled Co-ordinator of Student Activities.

Kathy's job entails: Advisor to Campus Activities Board, Panhellenic Advisor, consultant to other organizations who need help, and assistant to Paul Winters. Kathy is also involved in the Joplin Little Theater. She is married and has three children. In her spare time Kathy likes to sew and bowl.

Pro Student Activities

Many faculty and students are not aware of what the Director of the Student Center does. Paul Winters, director, is responsible for everything that happens in the building. He is in charge of seeing that rooms are set up for students and for outside groups. Paul is working towards increasing the use of the Billingsly Student Center through banquets, meetings, and dances.

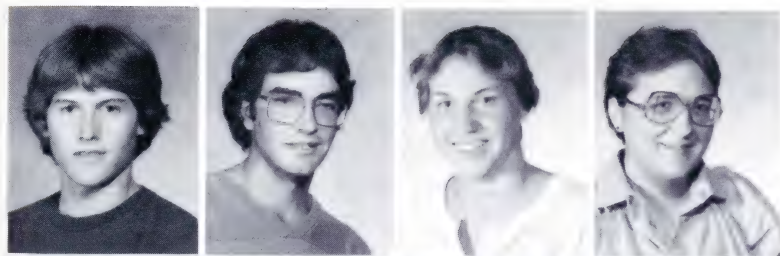

Through student activities, Paul feels that students can learn out of the classroom as well as in, or use what is learned in the classroom in activities. "I like to look at student activities as a co-curricular activity as opposed to an extracurricular activity." Paul would like to see the Student Activities Program expanded and developed with new programs and new ideas.

Small Businessman

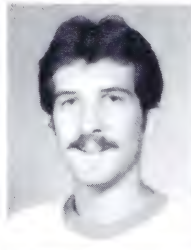

Bob Hess left Southern only a short time ago, however he has already established himself in the business community. The December 1980 graduate of the School of Business Administration is the owner and manager of Daylight Donuts in Carthage. Bob has the same concerns as many other businessmen. He fears that the government is gaining too much control over the private sector. "The federal government seems to be out to get us," Bob explains. Bob hadn't intended to be a small businessman, but for now his plans call for making a success of this business.

Dental Hygiene

Linda Talken is a dental hygiene major who has always been interested in dentistry. She had planned to go through the Dental Assisting Program but her high school biology teacher encouraged her to go into dental hygiene. A dental hygienist can clean teeth free of supervision where as dental assistants do what the doctor instructs. Linda plans to work in Festus, her hometown, or around St. Louis.

Linda was a 1980 Homecoming Queen candidate and this year's Outstanding Senior in Dental Hygiene. Linda enjoys crocheting, baking, and swimming. She also likes to sew and read books in her spare time.

Landscaper

Al Wood is the campus gardener for Missouri Southern. He is the first person to hold the job and has held it for the past four years. Al does the landscaping, planting, and attends to the trees and shrubs. Since coming to MSSC, from Carver National Park, Al has put in the rock gardens in front of Hearnes Hall, Business Administration, Student Center, and Science and Math building.

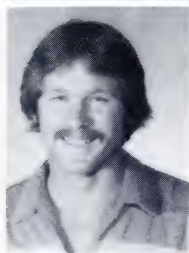

Al plants trees and shrubs because flowers are too hard to maintain with just one gardener. The many trees donated by organizations and individuals are greatly appreciated by everyone on campus. Al proudly continues to upgrade the campus.

Ozark Englishman

Stewart Alexander, a freshman at Southern, is an Accounting major. He is originally from London, England, but migrated to the United States when the cost of living skyrocketed. Stewart chose MSSC because his father lived in Joplin. He thinks Joplin is quiet and felt right at home during a recent trip to New York City, which reminded him of London.

Stewart didn't know what to expect from college life, but he feels college is fun as well as hard work and most of the students are friendly. He likes all kinds of sports, especially soccer and to go to movies and also enjoys the theatre. He hopes to become a CPA upon graduation.

Chart Editor

"I'm damned proud." That's how senior Clark Swanson feels about the achievements of the Chart during his three and one-half year tenure as editor. Swanson has introduced a number of innovations not usually found in the college newspaper that have helped the Chart to achieve its thirteenth successive All-American Award, "Everybody has to be dedicated," Clark explains, and he is certainly no exception. One evening Clark's work kept him in the Chart office so late that he was forced to spend the night sleeping on the floor. As he leaves Southern, Clark's planning a career as a communications consultant.

Devoted Employee

In 1963, Bonnie Blagg began her job as cashier in the cafeteria. She keeps track of how many dorm students are served. Her favorite part of the job is the students. Bonnie feels she is in harmony with the students and she also loves to be near them. "I feel like we have the greatest bunch of kids." Bonnie enjoys listening to the students' comments and observing what they do. However, one regretable aspect of her job is knowing the student will eventually graduate. It is hard to keep track of them after that.

Bonnie likes to work in her garden at her home in Carl Junction. She especially likes roses and plants. Bonnie likes to arrange flowers, read a good book, and be with her granddaughter.

Electronic Interest

John Scorse, a senior Industrial Arts major with an avid interest in electronics, would like to obtain more training in electronics. An experienced machine shop worker, John is trying to start his own machine shop that emphasizes electronics.

John was raised on a farm and has a mechanical background. He lives in Webb City and attended Webb City High School. He is a member of the Industrial Technology Club here on campus and the Society of Manufacturing Engineers. He recently became a Certified Manufacturing Technologist.

Computer Programing

From accounting to computer programming, that's what senior Marilyn Cook's college education has taken. On her arrival at Southern, Marilyn planned on pursuing a degree in the accounting field, but she soon realized that computer science was what really interested her. "I had an awfully good instructor in an introductory class who talked me into going into computers," Marilyn explained. Marilyn feels that a computer programmer has "an opportunity to advance himself as well as the company he works for." As one of the outstanding seniors in her department, Miss Cook served this year as president of the Computer Science League.

Outstanding Senior

Ed Hakes graduated from Carthage High School ten years ago and will graduate from Missouri Southern this year. His major is English because of an interest and the persuasion of an instructor. "The main thing in English is being able to write," said Ed. He would like to do creative writing in a year or two possibly go on to graduate school. With a wife and two children, Ed doesn't have much time for hobbies, but he likes tennis and reading. His favorite authors are Hemingway and Faulkner. Ed is a member of the English Club and was a representative on three committees in the English department. He has helped set up scenery at Joplin Little Theatre and is interested from a playwright's point of view.

EDITORIAL

We have all seen and heard the changes that took place this year: the students occupied the new dorms, Mathews Hall opened its doors for business, the college signed a new contract with the Handy Andy people, and the NEA teachers did away with the merit pay teacher evaluation system. These were just a few of the events that occurred here on campus. I hope they were all for the betterment of Southern and look forward to seeing the results in the future.

I would like to say that being editor this year has been quite an experience for me. I have learned a great deal and feel this experience will help me later. Most people don't know or realize the work that goes into publishing a book of one year's events; believe me, it is harder than it looks! I would like to thank my advisor, Gwen Hunt, for putting up with me. I learned a great deal from her and I guarantee she knows her business and teaches others what she knows. I would also like to thank my staff for their devoted efforts, especially Dan White, Rex Probert, Campy Benson and Cindy Worley. You all deserve the best because you are the best! Last but not least I would like to thank Richard W Williams, my "right arm", without your help this book would never have been finished. I would also like to thank my family for putting up with me this year, you are great! Everyone was very supportive and that is what I needed most of the time.

To the readers, I would like to say this book was possible through a lot of fun as well as dedicated hard work and I hope you enjoy the memories we have stored here for you now and as a future reference.

Sincerely,

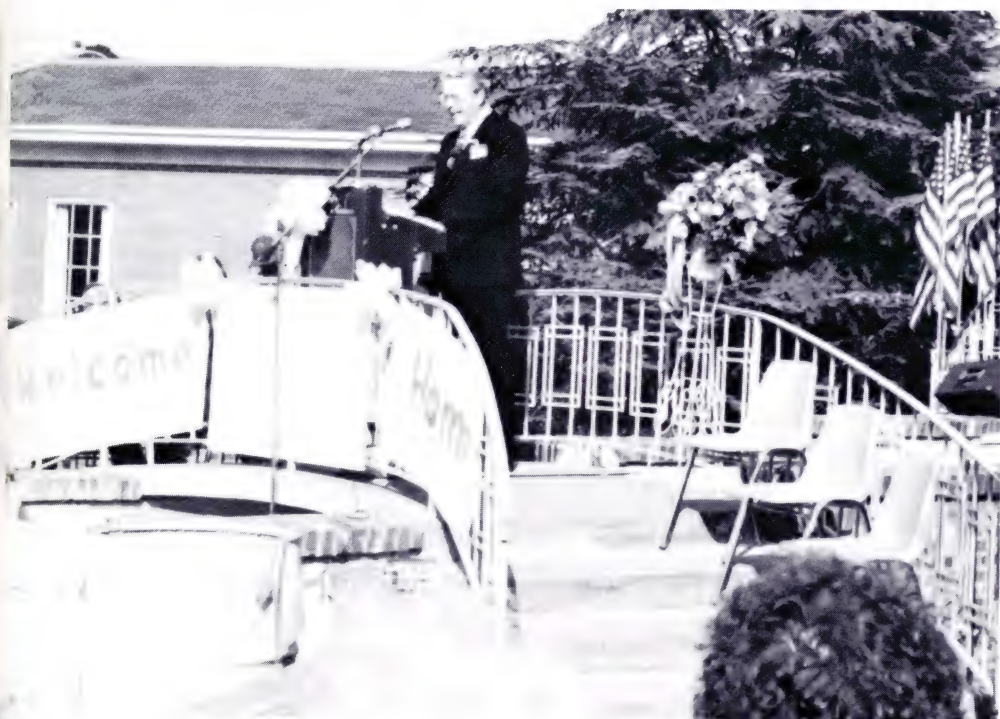

1980-81 Editor

HOSTAGES SET FREE

The nearly impossible had been achieved. The 52 Americans held hostage in the U.S. Embassy in Teheran, Iran were home at last! The 444 day seige by their Iranian captors had come to an end.

A special celebration was held in Spiva Park to celebrate the hostages' release and return home. Many people attended the celebration. There were 52 American flags flying and many yellow ribbons that were all burned at a ceremony that concluded the festivities. Patriotic music was provided by the Memorial High School Band, Impact Brass and Singers from Ozark Bible College, and our own Missouri Southern Concert Choral. Several addresses and presentations were made by Mayor Jack Belden, Meredith Williams, and Lee Phipps.

For those of us who took advantage of having Miss Lucille Dinges for an instructor, the opportunity became more than just the normal classroom experience. She exposed us to literature and writing in such a way that we became aware of life and the conditions of life that demand endurance, strength and perseverance; through her knowledge of literature, she brought the classroom alive with energy and enthusiasm; Miss Dinges gave all of us something that has a value beyond any price: An example of courage and heroism in an age when we think we have no heroes or heroines.

The Chart dedicated an extensive article to Miss Dinges, the Winged Lion dedicated its Fall, 1980 issue to her memory, the administration established the Lucille Dinges Lecture Series, and we of the Crossroads would also like to recognize the contribution that she made to this campus. The students have lost an inspiring teacher who had the ability to make poets, essayists and prose writers come alive out of text books and stand before the class members in the full attire of their period. Miss Dinges contributed as much to the professional academic environment as she did to her classes in the 10 years she was at Southern, and because of this she will be missed by the members of MSSC's faculty and staff. The college as a whole can never replace her vitality and enthusiasm that stemmed from an interest in the growth and progress of this campus. She enjoyed and appreciated all aspects of MSSC that reached the community, ranging from the arts to athletics, and her support of this institution never flagged.

Miss Dinges' support of MSSC had its roots in the student body. She respected students as individuals and as new members of the academic community, and she always made the extra effort to help when a student had a problem. Her talents as a teacher also included the ability to make us strive to do the very best work we could possibly do. The obstacles became challenges, and we would overcome them with sharpened skills. We inherited her energy and interest in the subject. Every student who had Miss Dinges for a class came away with a unique gift: The ability to match the desire to learn and the interest in the subject with the energy and perseverance to see a project to its conclusion. Through her, we learned not only about the presented material but also about ourselves. We learned that we can expand our limits and our horizons with hard work and dedication.

Those who knew Miss Dinges personally witnessed firsthand a boundless courage and a will that matched life on its own terms. Their loss at her death cannot be easily expressed because friendship is something more than words and statements. When we lose a great friend, we experience an emptiness that longs to be filled, yet these friends can never be replaced and so they give us gifts of life. These gifts are our memories that evoke laughter and tears and moments of reflective solitude; these gifts are ours forever to pass on to others through our own individualities as we have learned the lessons that our friends taught us.

When we meet in life someone who is bigger than life, yet who goes about daily life with a calm serenity, we come to realize the value of human dignity. Miss Dinges had a gift that encompassed intellect, talent, and the concern for other human beings. We will miss her, but we will take the life and food for future years that she gave us and maintain our lives at the standard which she raised for us.

DEDICATED EMPLOYEE RETIRES

John Johnson retired in January after 15 years in charge of payroll and personnel records. He served faculty, staff and student employees year round, answering countless questions about taxes, insurance, salaries, ushering everyone through the mass of red tape with calmness and humor. He is busier than ever now fishing and traveling and "loving every minute of it."

Faculty Members Retire from Teaching

There are three faculty members who retired effective this year. They are Mrs. Hilda Richardson of the Education Department, Dr. Helen Gardner of the English Department, and Mrs. Enid Blevins also of the English Department. We want to thank them for their time they have dedicated to the teaching profession. We hope they have enjoyed teaching as much as we have appreciated their guidance through the years here at Southern. We wish you the best for the future and congratulations!

Behind the scenes is a large force of personel who carry out the daily tasks tbat keep this campus running. Whether it be the secretaries who keep the records typed and filed, or the ones that hand out the financial aid checks and just as methodically take them back when fees are due, the paperwork always gets done.

Have no fear, for the ever diligent, ever present security man is near by with ticket book in hand, righting wrongs for the betterment of all.

Take occasional notice of the lawns which are always well manicured and the dirt paths which criss-cross the oval that are ever free from litter. Even more mysterious, the rocks in the rock gardens are always arranged just so.

Never again take for granted the shiny floors which remain that way despite the thousands of feet which trod on them each day. Be more appreciative of the sparkling windows which let in the bright sunshine to get in your eyes while you're trying to sleep in class.

The staffers pictured on these pages are just a few of that larger group, all of whom deserve a round of thanks.

So, the next time nature calls and there is a roll of toilet paper before your outstretched hand, be glad that some member of our diligent support staff was on the job.
